

8 HRS HACKATHON (HACK O'HOLIC)

DESCRIPTION : 8 hrs Hackathon is an event like sprint where a group of people involve come together and choose a problem statement of given domains and select a particular stream in it and develop a software/application which can solve the problem in the time. The team include interface designers, project designers, domain experts, developers from any course of study and from any college.

PURPOSE : The purpose of Hackathon is for a group of programmers to work together for a collaborative project and to improve competitiveness between the individuals and team culture among them to produce a final work product. Main goal here is to learn something new while growing in a team.

DOMAINS :

List of domains will be updated in Website by JANUARY 20, 2020

RULES :

1. Every team lead have to register in the website first.
2. Each team have to submit their project with their own problem statement and abstract in their selected domain with not more than 10 lines in both (Problem statement and Abstract).
3. Deadline to submit abstracts is Feb 5.
4. Approvals will be through mail and Fee must be paid after the approval of Abstract.
5. Laptops should be brought by the teams.
6. Internet usage is allowed and WiFi will be provided.
7. Final product should be developed on the Spot.
8. Judges decision is final.

NOTE : The approved teams can only participate in the Hackathon.

TEAM : Team size can be of 3-4

REGISTRATION FEE : 800/- (Per Team)

Fee should be paid once your abstract is approved.

DATE & TIME:

21st Feb 09:00 to 18:00

PRIZES :

1ST prize : 9000

2nd prize : 5000

Co-ordinator :

SANDEEP K - 7013944361 – sandeepkilli333@gmail.com